OUT OF UNIFORM DRESS

These days may be announced throughout the school year. "Crusader" day will be typically the first Friday of each month. The dress code will be clearly reviewed with parents and students to define the appropriate dress for a non-uniform day and will include the following guidelines:

- Students may wear any casual clean pants (no holes, frayed edges, or low hanging pants)
- Leggings yoga pants are not acceptable on any dress down day
- Appropriate length skirts (no shorter than 2 inches above the knee) are also acceptable for girls
- No pajama pants are allowed.
- Shirts may have appropriate logos and must have sleeves, long or short.
- Tank tops of any kind are not to be worn
- The wearing of jewelry should follow the regular dress code guidelines
- If a Crusader Day, the student must have a visible shirt or sweatshirt of some kind that has a logo in reference to St. William.
